Chapter 1 by Volleyball6

It was a bright day.

The sun shone its glimmering rays onto the nearby lake by my house. I wiped my hand across my forehead, capturing the bead of sweat that had settled there from the heat. It was around 80 degrees, and my mom told me to stay outside and "do something other than youtube and texting". I scanned the area. The lake shimmered and people were strolling around on the long winding path. I heaved my bag from the ground that was filled with a bathing suit, goggles, sunscreen, lemonade, and a towel. I was planning on meeting my best friend at the water.

I ran quickly to the edge of the lake, went to the bathroom, and changed. "Hey, girl!" My friend Ava called from a stall, recognizing my flip flops. We talked awhile and finally arrived in the water. My friend suddenly stopped dead on the walkway, not even getting in the cooling water. "Uh... Ashley? L... look."
